Sir:

In accordance with 37 C.F.R. §1.78, Applicants respectfully request acceptance of an unintentionally delayed claim for the benefit of a prior-filed application under 35 U.S.C. §120.

Applicants respectfully submit that the prior benefit claim did not properly identify all of the prior applications and the relationship between each application to have the benefit of the filing date of the first filed application. The above-identified application was filed May 25, 2001, claiming "[t]his is a continuation of Application Serial No. 09/465,719, filed December 17, 1999." Applicants proper benefit claim should read as follows: "This is a continuation of Application Serial No. 09/465,719, filed December 17, 1999, now Pat. No. 6,265,377, which is a continuation of Application Serial No. 08/940,093, filed September 29, 1997, now Pat. No. 6,037,323." Applicants learned of this improper benefit claim upon the receipt of a final Office Action, mailed July 11, 2003, wherein rejections were issued under 35 U.S.C. §102(a) and (e), citing a U.S. Patent and PCT Publication filed September 29, 1997.

The entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 C.F.R. §1.78(a)(2)(ii) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. Applicants hereby petition to accept the unintentionally delayed claim for priority under 37 CFR. §1.78. If this petition is accepted,
